NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

THE PRIVACY OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION IS IMPORTANT TO US.

OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect April 14, 2003, and will remain in effect until we replace it. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this our notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make the changes in our Notice effective for all health information that we maintain including health information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and make the new Notice available upon request. You may request a copy of our Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this Notice, please contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

We may use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment and healthcare operations. For example: Treatment: we may use or disclose your health information to a dentist or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you. Payments: We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you. Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations including quality healthcare professionals evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, or credentialing activities.

Your Authorization: in addition to the use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice.

To Your Family and Friends: We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree that we may do so.

Persons Involved in Care: We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist in the notification of, including identifying or locating a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care or your location, your general condition, or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures, in the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances. We will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up x-rays or other similar forms of health information.

Required by Law: We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law. Abuse or Neglect: We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of others.

National Security: We may disclose to military authorities the health information of Armed Forces personnel under certain circumstances, We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities, We may disclose to correctional institution or law enforcement official having lawful custody of patient under certain circumstances.

Appointment Reminders: We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders (such as email, voicemail, text messages, postcards or letters)

PATIENT RIGHTS

Access: You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information with limited exceptions. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use the format you request unless we cannot practicably do so. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your health information. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. You may also request access by sending us a letter to the address at the end of this Notice. If you request an alternative format, we will charge a cost-based fee for providing your health information in that format. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice for a full explanation of our fee structure.

Disclosure Accounting: You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes, other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations and certain other activities, for the last 6 years, but not before April 14, 2003. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable cost-based fee for responding to these additional requests. Restrictions: You have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on care or disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree on these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in an emergency).

Alternative Communications: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or to alternative locations. You must make your request in writing. Your request must specify the alternative means, or location, and provide satisfactory explanation how payment will be handled under the alternative means or locations you request. Amendment: You have the right to request that we amend your health information; your request must be written, and it must explain why the information should be amended. We may deny your request under certain circumstances.

QUESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS

If you want more information about our privacy practices or have questions or concerns, please contact us as follows. Anthem Periodontics and Dental Implants, Compliance Officer, 2610 W. Horizon Ridge Pkwy Suite 202, Henderson, NV 89052 If you are concerned that we may have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we made about access to your health information or in response to a request you made to amend or restrict the use or disclosures of your health information, or to have us communicate with you by alternative means or at alternative location, you may complain to us using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. You also may submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file your complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Dear Patient:

Thank you for choosing Anthem Periodontics & Dental Implants as your health care provider. We appreciate the opportunity to assist you with your dental needs. We believe that having financial matters clear from the onset is preferable to encountering difficulties later.

Our financial policy is as follows:

1. Payments are due at the time services are rendered, except for surgical services.
2. Payments for surgical services are due prior to services rendered.
3. We accept cash, check, ATM cards, and all major credit cards for your convenience.
4. We will bill your secondary insurance as a courtesy to you, but we will only bill them once.
5. If your insurance company does not pay your claim within 30 days, we ask that you contact your insurance company. If your insurance company does not pay in full within 60 days, we require you to pay the balance due with cash, check, or credit card.
6. All charges are your responsibility, whether your insurance company pays or not. You are responsible for knowing what is covered and what is not covered by your insurance. Not all services are covered by insurance; some insurance companies select certain services that they do not cover. Payment for the services that are not covered by your insurance is due when treatment is rendered.
7. It is your responsibility to verify that the doctor you are seeing is a provider for your insurance.
8. A fee of 5% of unpaid balances will be charged to all accounts referred to collections, plus any and all collection fees.
9. A returned check will be subject to a $25.00 returned check fee.
10. Forty eight (48) hours notice is required for cancellations to avoid a broken appointment fee of $50.00 per hour.

I have read and understand the above policies 1-10.

Electronic Statement Disclosure

Dear patient,

We're pleased to announce that we have chosen a new, paperless billing solution to add convenience and flexibility for our customers.

No more paper, no more stamps, and no more headaches! We're looking forward to the transition and hope you enjoy the simplified process as well. Please let us know any questions!

We are informing you that you will be receiving information about your account electronically. This notice applies to all documents, notices, and disclosures that we provide to you relating to your account, balance due, and your appointments. You must promptly access/review your e-Statement and any accompanying items and notify us with any questions. Please read this Electronic Statement Disclosure carefully and print a copy for your records. We will not provide you with paper(non-electronic) copies of any documents unless specifically requested by you. You may incur a fee for paper copies. Please contact us for more information about the fee. Electronic statements will be sent via e-mail or text.

How to Update Your Records

It is your responsibility to provide us with true, accurate, and complete e-mail address, contact, and other information related to this disclosure and your account(s), and to maintain and update promptly any changes in this information. You can update such information (such as your e-mail address) by contacting us via e-mail at info@anthemperio.com or by phone at (702)270-4600.
